Dr. Safner, is a great instructor. He is a great addition to the Econ department. He is extremely helpful! Econ is not my strong subject; however, after the first test he was very helpful with me understand all the concept that I didn't fully understand.
Included too many slides in power point presentations. Could have Condensed slides and maybe had 1/3 of the amount. Otherwise excellent instructor and course.
My biggest suggestion would be to set more deadlines rather than just saying whenever throughout the semester. For Example have one of the current events due before the midterm and maybe even a rough draft of the paper due before then too, or at least have to have your idea submitted, something like that.
Thoroughly enjoyed the class! Great professor!
Dr. Safner is excellent, I'm so glad he chose to come to Hood this year. I'd enjoy if he were to act as the Department Chair for Economics as well.
Was awesome, very one on one, knew everyone on a personal level and always went out of his way to help when seeking out of class assistance.

I really enjoyed this class. I have taken other more theory related and discussion based economic classes with Dr. Safner but this one is by far my favorite. I enjoyed all the topics we have discussed in class and really liked the balance with the math and intuition side of the class.
Favorite class of the year
Exciting course that stimulated interest and connected concepts to the modern world.
Dr. Safner excellently organized this course with a combination of lectures about the economic theory behind trade and class discussions about its implications. He takes time outside of class to answer any questions a student may have about a lecture, homework, or test.
This is Val by the way. I really enjoyed this course! Dr. Safner was very much interested in teaching this course, and he always made every effort to ensure that we all understood the subject. I'll be really sad for this class to end, and I hope that I have Dr. Safner as a professor for a class in the future!
I loved the discussions in this class, and wish we could have had them more often. I know there's a time constraint, but maybe in the future having a discussion on blackboard would be a good way to get more discussions flowing without taking away from class time. There could be an article every other week with a couple questions to consider and everyone could comment on it. It's more work, but in the end I feel like it would be really beneficial and could take the place of one of the response papers ! Anyways, I loved this class and I'm really glad I got to take it at such a relevant time.
