Many of the readings are very interesting. However, if you want the discussions to remain on topic it would be beneficial to find a way to reduce the length of the readings or attempt to find related videos and podcasts. It is a 400 level class, so I understand the desire to post the entire reading, but the percent of kids who read start to finish would go up and I believe discussions would stay on the reading much more if the readings contained the handful of key, interesting passages.

Awesome class!

Always a pleasure to be in Dr. Safner's class, always learn more than I anticipated.

Great Class, hope more like it are offered in the future.

Dr. Safner is one of my favorite professors at hood. His lectures are always entertaining and informative and I find i get so much more out of economics when he is delivering it.

Fantastic Job as always
